

2. Advanced Comparative Zoology (3:0:0)

Anand Krishnan (advanced course, 300 level)

This course follows from the Basic Functional and Comparative Zoology course, and students will examine the historical development and current outstanding questions of fields within the discipline that they will choose. The course will involve readings, presentations and discussions on topics that the students choose at the beginning of the course, with a term paper due at the end of the semester.