Nomination for Ramanujan/Ramalingaswami Fellows

Jawaharlal Nehru Centre for Advanced Scientific Research (JNCASR), a premier research institution under the aegis of the Department of Science and Technology, GoI and a Deemed-to-be-University invites applications from Indian nationals seeking nomination for applying to Ramanujan/Ramalingaswami Fellowship. If awarded, the Centre will provide necessary administrative and basic R&D infrastructure support for the fellowship duration; the rest of the terms will be as per the fellowship norms. The Centre will be under no obligation to offer regular positions to the Fellows.

The Evolutionary and Organismal Biology Unit (EOBU) of the Jawaharlal Nehru Centre for Advanced Scientific Research (JNCASR), Bengaluru, welcomes expressions of interest from Indian nationals who wish to apply for Ramanujan/Ramalingaswami Fellowships with the sponsorship of JNCASR. Preferred areas of research include but are not restricted to plant evolutionary ecology, physiological ecology, phylogeography / biogeography, evolutionary epidemiology, community ecology, evolutionary theory, and palaeontology.

Eligibility

Ph.D. in relevant areas with at least two years of post-doctoral experience, high-quality publications, and strong academic credentials.

Short listing Criteria

A panel of experts will initially screen candidates, followed by seminars and interactions with Unit faculty members for those short-listed. The final candidate on the shortlist will receive a host institution endorsement/sponsorship certificate.
