Falling Walls Global Call 2023

Breakthrough research was and is the key to understanding and solving the greatest challenges of our time

Current Falling Walls Global Call: 1 March – 1 May 2023

Falling Walls fosters discussion on research and innovation and promotes the latest scientific findings among a broad audience from all parts of society. We look forward to honouring the people who are finding solutions to these challenges at the Falling Walls Science Summit 2023.

Let's make the Falling Walls Science Summit 2023 a celebration of excellent science.
