Science in Exile webinar "Long-term support of refugee and displaced scientists: the power of mentorship" - 30 September 2021, 13:00 - 14:30 (Rome time).

The webinar explores existing mentorship programmes for at-risk, displaced, and refugee scholars and scientists. Through discussions with mentors and mentees and the hosting organizations, the aim is to identify good practices, gaps, and the benefits of mentorship. The current agenda and the registration form can be accessed here: https://unesco-org.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_Xv2GYZreRDqOaaKTAIVvAw

The webinar is part of the Science in Exile webinar series.

The Science in Exile initiative (<https://twas.org/science-exile-initiative>) aims to create a network of like-minded organizations that will work together to develop a platform and roll out a coordinated advocacy campaign, so as to foster a cohesive response for the support and integration of at-risk, displaced, and refugee scientists.
