

A FRAMEWORK FOR TRANSPARENCY AUDIT

The RTI Act under section 4 provides a comprehensive framework for promoting openness in the functioning of the public authorities.

While Section 4(1) (a) provides a general guideline for record management, so that the information could be easily stored and retained, the sub-sections b, c and d of Section 4 relate to the organizational objects and functions. Sub-sections (b), (c) and (d) of Section 4 of the RTI Act and other related information can be grouped under six categories; namely, 1-organisation and function, 2- Budget and programmes, 3- Publicity and public interface, 4-E. governance, 5-Information as prescribed and 6. Information disclosed on own initiative.

While setting up the Centre, it was expected that it would maintain close ties with an existing centre of excellence. It was for this reason that Indian Institute of Science assisted the new Centre by providing land for guest accommodation, faculty housing and an office. The Karnataka government granted 15 acres of land to establish the new Centre. The Centre was registered as a society with Dr. Raja Ramanna as Chairman. The new Centre started functioning in the year 1989 with Prof. C.N.R. Rao as the Founding President. Academic activities of the Centre started right away. Research was also initiated in the laboratories of the Indian Institute of Science by some of the honorary professors. Recruitment of full-time faculty members started just before the inauguration of the new campus at Jakkur, Bengaluru by Dr. K.R. Narayanan, the then Vice President of the country in March 1995. The first

		Chairman of the Centre's Council of Management (Governing Body) was Dr. Raja Ramanna, whose association provided visionary guidance and mission to the Centre. The Society of the Centre, registered on June 27, 1989, was chaired by Dr. Ramanna along with other distinguished members including Dr. A. Ramachandran, former secretary of the Department of Science and Technology, Government of India and Prof. M.M. Sharma, University Department of Chemical Technology (UDCT), Mumbai. The first Unit to be established at the Centre was the Chemistry and Physics of Materials Unit. Soon a Unit devoted to biology (now Molecular Biology and Genetics Unit) was initiated with the help of Prof. G. Padmanaban, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore. The Fluid Dynamics Unit (now Engineering Mechanics Unit) was set up by Prof. Roddam Narasimha and one on Biodiversity was initiated by Prof. Madhav Gadgil. Until becoming a Deemed to be University, our academic degrees were awarded through Manipal University. Along with the establishment of research units, the Centre also initiated extension programmes including discussion meetings, frontier lectures and direct contact programmes with school students. Establishment of the Education Technology Unit was our step towards taking scientific discoveries to students and teachers of schools and colleges. Other units in the Centre are Theoretical Sciences Unit which apart from condensed matter physics interfaces Chemistry and Biology experimental research through computational and theoretical modelling. Evolutionary and Integrative Biology Unit was established by Prof. M.K. Chandrasekaran; New Chemistry Unit by Prof. C.N.R. Rao and Neurosciences Unit by Prof. M.R.S. Rao. Committee formation Statutory Committees were set up as per the norms specified by GoI and as in the Memorandum of Association, Rules &amp; Regulations and Bye Laws of the Centre.
